Clinker Gig Launch

The launch of the Sneem Clinker Gig took place at Sneem Hotel pier on Friday 17th July. The 50 year old boat was brought back to life by the Sneem Men's Shed over the last 4 months. It had its first outing on the 17th and then the Under 16's entered a regatta in Kenmare and the next outing is on Bank Holiday Monday in Castletownbere.

Sneem Rowing Club would like to thank the Sneem Men's Shed, pictured below for all their hard work.

Donie Riney 7 -a-side Tournament

The Donie Riney 7 a Side Senior Men's Football tournament is entering into its 2nd year and will take place on August 8th 2015 in Sneem. Last year, the tournament was a huge success raising €2865 - all of which was donated to the Irish Cancer Society.

This year, all the funds will be donated to The Marymount Hospice in Cork to help them continue their amazing work.

This year we have teams coming from all over Kerry and Munster and it will be a fantastic day of football and fun! Its a great day out for the family - with loads to do for kids!

There is no entrance fee - just whatever you can donate to the charity.

The teams will be registering at 10am so games will kick off at 11am.

For any further queries or if your club would like to take part please contact me at anneriney@gmail.com

Hope to see ye all there. Anne Marie Riney

Flossie Plain Charity Concert

Flossie Plain Charity Concert will take place on the 8th August 2015. Refreshments 7.00 pm and concert starts at 7.45pm at St. Patrick's Church, Kenmare. Donations to the charity.

Flossie Plain has organised a musical evening full of light hearted entertainment with special performances from: Flossie Plain, Nils Jones - Violin, The South Kerry Rosen Choir, Plain Trouble and Friends.

Flossie studies the trumpet at Chethams School of Music in Manchester. Earlier this year she and eight others were chosen to represent the Commonwealth in Malta next year.

'The Commonwealth Resounds!' is an organisation seeking to identify and promote outstanding musical initiatives, develop partnerships between artists from different cultural origins and support training programmes for young musicians. These objective will be realised through performances, seminars, projects, masterclasses, discussions and outreach work.

Flossie would like to raise more money than is required to go on this trip because she would like to give disadvantaged children who have never been given the opportunity to play an instrument.

Friday 28th August – Lecture/ Talk - A Souterrain at Releagh – Discovering Hidden Heritage in South Kerry presented by Frank Coyne.

In April 2015 the discovery of a twelve-hundred year-old souterrain (an underground hiding place) during road construction between Kenmare and Glengarriff hit the headlines. Frank Coyne of Aegis Archaeology investigated the site on behalf of Kerry County Council and the National Roads Authority. He will give the first public presentation about the site and place it in the context of south Kerry's rich early medieval heritage.

This event is being organised as part of NRA / Archaeology - Heritage Week Events in association with Kerry County Council.

Admission Free - 8pm

If you are planning to come to a concert, please book in advance as some of the events require a minimum number of seat sales to go ahead.
